The Declaration of Independence 1776

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776. A DECLARATION By the REPRESENTATIVES of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, IN GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED.

HEN in the Courfe of human Events, it becomes neceffary for one People to diffolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to affume among the Powers of the Earth, the feparate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent Refpect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they fhould declare the caufes which impel them to the Separation.

WE hold thefe Truths to be felf-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among thefe are Life, Liberty, and the Purfuit of Happinefs—–That to fecure thefe Rights, Governments are inflituted among Men, deriving their juft Powers from the Confent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes deftructive of thefe Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolifh it, and to inflitute new Government, laying its Foundation on fuch Principles, and organizing its Powers in fuch Form, as to them fhall feem moft likely to effect their Safety and Happinefs. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long eftablifhed fhould not be changed for light and transfient Caufes ; and accordingly all Experience hath fhewn, that Mankind are more difpofed to fuffer, while Evils are fufferable, than to right themfelves by abolifhing the Forms to which they are accuftomed. But when a long Train of Abufes and Ufurpations, purfusing invariably the fame Object, evinces a Defign to reduce them under abfolute Defpotifm, it is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off fuch Government, and to provide new Guards for their future Security. Such has been the patient Sufferance of thefe Colonies ; and fuch is now the Neceffity which conftrains them to alter their former Syftems of Government. The History of the present King of Great-Britain is a Hiftory of repeated Injuries and Ufurpations, all having in direct Object the Eftablishment of an abfolute Tyranny over thefe States. To prove this, let Facts be fubmitted to a candid World.

HE has refufed his Affent to Laws, the most wholefome and neceffary for the public Good.

HE has forbidden his Governors to pass Laws of immediate and preffing Importance, unless sufferenced in their Operation till his Affent should be obtained; and when so sufferenced, he has utterly neglected to attend to them.

HE has refufed to pass other Laws for the Accommodation of large Districts of People, unless those People would relinquish the Right of Representation in the Legislature, a Right inestimable to them, and formidable to Tyrants only.

HE has called together Legiflative Bodies at Places unufual, uncomfortable, and diftant from the Depofitory of their public Records, for the fole Purpofe of fatiguing them into Compliance with his Meafures.

HE has diffolved Reprefentative Houfes repeatedly, for oppofing with manly Firmnefs his Invafions on the Rights of the People.

HE has refufed for a long Time, after fuch Diffolutions, to caufe others to be elected ; whereby the Legiflative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercife ; the State remaining in the mean time exposed to all the Dangers of Invalion from without, and Convullions within.

HE has endeavoured to prevent the Population of these States ; for that Purpose obstructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners ; refufing to pass others to encourage their Migrations hither, and raising the Conditions of new Appropriations of Lands.

HE has obstructed the Administration of Justice, by refusing his Affent to Laws for establishing Judiciary Powers.

HE has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the Tenure of their Offices, and the Amount and Payment of their Salaries.

HE has erected a Multitude of new Offices, and fent hither Swarms of Officers to harrafs our People, and eat out their Subftance.

HE has kept among us, in Times of Peace, Standing Armies, without the confent of our Legiflatures.

HE has affected to render the Military independent of and fuperior to the Civil Power.

HE has combined with others to fubject us to a Jurifdiction foreign to our Conflitution, and unacknowledged by our Laws ; giving his Affent to their Acts of pretended Legiflation :

For quartering large Bodies of Armed Troops among us :

FOR protecting them, by a mock Trial, from Punifhment for any Murders which they fhould commit on the Inhabitants of thefe States :

For cutting off our Trade with all Parts of the World :

For impofing Taxes on us without our Confent :

For depriving us, in many Cafes, of the Benefits of Trial by Jury :

For transporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended Offences :

FOR abolifhing the free Syftem of Englifh Laws in a neighbouring Province, eftablifhing therein an arbitrary Government, and enlarging its Boundaries, fo as to render it at once an Example and fit Inftrument for introducing the fame abfolute Rule into these Colonies :

FOR taking away our Charters, abolifhing our moft valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments :

For fufpending our own Legiflatures, and declaring themfelves invefted with Power to legiflate for us in all Cafes whatfoever.

He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War againft us.

HE has plundered our Seas, ravaged our Coafts, burnt our Towns, and deftroyed the Lives of our People.

HE is, at this Time, transporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the Works of Death, Defolation, and Tyranny, already begun with circumftances of Cruelty and Perfidy, fcarcely paralleled in the most barbarous Ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized Nation.

HE has conftrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms against their Country, to become the Executioners of their Friends and Brethren, or to fall themselves by their Hands.

HE has excited domeftic Infurrections amongft us, and has endeavoured to bring on the Inhabitants of our Frontiers, the merciles Indian Savages, whose known Rule of Warfare, is an undiftinguished Deftruction, of all Ages, Sexes and Conditions.

IN every ftage of these Oppressions we have Petitioned for Redress in the most humble Terms : Our repeated Petitions have been answered only by repeated Injury. A Prince, whose Character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the Ruler of a free People

NOR have we been wanting in Attentions to our Britifh Brethren. We have warned them from Time to Time of Attempts by their Legiflature to extend an unwarrantable Jurifdiction over us. We have reminded them of the Circumftances of our Emigration and Settlement here. We have appealed to their native Juftice and Magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the Ties of our common Kindred to difavow thefe Ufurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our Connections and Correfpondence. They too have been deaf to the Voice of Juftice and of Confanguinity. We muft, therefore, acquiefce in the Neceffity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the reft of Mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace, Friends.

WE, therefore, the Reprefentatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in GENERAL CONGRESS, Affembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the World for the Rectitude of our Intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of thefe Colonies, folemnly Publifh and Declare, That thefe United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be, FREE AND INDEPENDENT STATES ; that they are abfolved from all Allegiance to the Britifh Crown, and that all political Connection between them and the State of Great-Britain, is and ought to be totally diffolved ; and that as FREE AND IN-DEPENDENT STATES, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, eftablifh Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which INDEPENDENT STATES may of right do. And for the fupport of this Declaration, with a firm Reliance on the Protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our facred Honor.

Signed by ORDER and in BEHALF of the CONGRESS,

JOHN HANCOCK, PRESIDENT.

Attest. CHARLES THOMSON, Secretary.
